Unveiling the Statue of Her late Majesty the Queen Empress of India.

---

1. At 4-30 P. M. on Monday, the 5th February 1906, His Royal Highness will unveil the statue of Her late Majesty the Queen Empress of India.

2. A Guard of Honour furnished by the Kolar Gold Fields Rifle Volunteers will be drawn up at the Residency, and will be inspected by His Royal Highness.

3. Their Royal Highnesses accompanied by Sir Walter Lawrence will leave the Residency at 4-25 P. M., and will be escorted by one Squadron of the Carabiniers and the District Superintendent of Police, Civil and Military Station.

4. The route will be by Cubbon Road and Ice House Road, and will be lined by troops of the Bangalore Garrison.

5. No carriages, other than those from the Residency, will be allowed to pass along Cubbon Road between the Residency gates and the corner of Ice-House Road, or down Ice House Road after 3-30 P.M. Details regulating traffic will be specially published for general information by the Police.

6. The members of the Royal suite will be accommodated in a Pandal erected for the occasion. The President and members of the Executive Committee of the Victoria Memorial Fund will occupy a position to the left of the Pandal. Press representatives, Native ladies, British Pensioners and other spectators will be accommodated in separate enclosures, admission to which will be by tickets issued from the Residency Office free of charge. The general public will view the ceremony from the rope line, which will be kept by the Sappers and Miners. Special Police regulations showing the routes by which the public should arrive, will be issued separately.

7. Full dress uniform will be worn.

8. The Royal carriage will draw up at the Pandal, the trumpeters sounding a flourish. The Guard of Honour, which will be furnished by the 69th Punjabis, will be at the slope and remain so until the salute. The massed bands of all Infantry Corps in the garrison will be in rear of the Guard of Honour.

The two troops of the escort preceding the Royal carriage will move along the road of departure forming line on both sides of the road facing inwards from the point where it is met by the public enclosure. The two troops of the escort following the Royal carriage will stand fast on the road and form line facing the statue.

9. Their Royal Highnesses will be met by the Resident and Staff, General Officer Commanding and Staff, and the Dewan of Mysore.

10. Sir Krishna Murti, K. C. I. E., Dewan of Mysore, will read a short address requesting His Royal Highness to unveil the statue.

11. When His Royal Highness moves forward to unveil the statue, the trumpeters will sound a flourish. As the veil falls, the Guard of Honour will give a royal salute and the massed bands will play 12 bars of the National Anthem, every one present saluting or uncovering his head.

12. As the bands stop playing, the Guard of Honour will come to the slope and an Artillery salute of 101 guns at intervals of 5 seconds will be fired from the Parade ground by "G" Battery, R. H. A., and the 12th and 58th Batteries.

13. After a brief interval, Their Royal Highnesses, accompanied by Sir Walter Lawrence, and attended by the escort and a Durbar Superintendent of Police, will leave and take a drive to the Lal-Bagh. The carriages of the remainder of the suite will follow.

14. The rout of the drive will be as follows :—Through Cubbon Park past the Seshadri Memorial Hall and Survey Office to the Yelhanka Gate, then through the City and Fort and Mavahalli village, and on to the Lal-Bagh.

15. Their Royal Highnesses will alight at the glass-house in the Lal-Bagh where they will be met and conducted round the Flower Show by the Superintendent of the Lal-Bagh. The Flower Show will not be open to the public till the following day.

16. After seeing the Flower Show, Their Royal Highnesses will return to the Residency, the route of the return drive being by the Mission Road, past the Cenotaph, Maternity Hospital and Survey Office, and on to the Residency by the Cubbon Park entrance.

17. The route of the drive will be under the supervision of the City Police who will keep order at the Lal-Bagh.
